The Inchease of the Population of Philadelphia Gheater than that the New York. The Philadelphia United States Gazette claims that Philadelphia has steadily gained on New York in population, although the latter had larger capital and larger counserce. In five years, New York his advanced from 516,000 to 800,000, as claimed by her papers, with a gain of fifty-five per cent. This, indeed, is all that they can claim. For it is claiming a greater ratio of increase for the last five years of hard times, and a vasily lessened immigration, than for the previous five years of good times, with a ceaseless stream of foreigners. Philadelphia has, in the same time, gone on from 406,000 to 680,000—as stated by those who have carefully convassed it throughout—making a gain of sixty-seven per cent.

THE ITALIAN QUESTION.—What shall be tone with the hurdygurdylats who make the lay hideous with their "mad machines?"

The Charleston (S. C.) Mercury says in

Information has been received in this city of the capture by the British steamer Fiscon of the brig Jehosses, Capt. Vincent, of this port, on the west coast of Africa. The last previously known of the Jehosses was her sailing for New York. She was overthauled about the 20th of January, in the Gulf of Guinea, by the British criliser, on suspicion of being engaged in the slave trade, and boarded. Every proper question was answered by Capt. Vincent, but the right of search denied and resisted. Capt. Vincent and his officers were carried on board the Paleon, and there subjected to great indignity, being stripped of their clothing and abused in an insulting manner by the epauletted officers of Queen Vic.

While the officers were thus detained, the vessel was plundered, the cargo broken open, and the private trunks, stores, desks and stores on board her rified. A prize crew was put on board, and sail made for the coast. The first night was a scene of demoniac reveiry: The prize crew had pillaged the liquor from the store of the Jehosse, and were thepleasly drunk; indeed, so far were they stupefied, that the commander of the Falcon withdrew them, and placed a new crew on board the brig. The Jehossee was taken into Whydah; but after several days detention, she was, on the 6th of February, tendered to her officers. but after several days' detention, she was, on the 6th of February, tendered to her officers, who refused to accept of her restoration. Capt. Vincent, at last advices, was awaiting the arrival of some of the United States squadron, to lay his grievances before the proper authorities. From all accounts, the affair was certainly a high-handed one, and Capt. Vincent and his crew deserve ample reparation and heavy lowing Presidential speculations:

"McLean stock has improved considerably for a week past, corresponding with the improvement of Hunter stock on the other side. The Judge would make a very good candidate for the Opposition; but we believe that the man who would do the best for them is Judge Read, of Pennsylvania. If he should be nominated, and Mr. Douglas should not be nominated, the election virtually would be decided in May. He is the only man of whom it can be positively asserted that he would be sure to get the votes of Pennsylvania and New Jersey; and, with the votes of those States, success could certainly be counted upon, as the Republicans are sure of one hun-States, success could certainly be counted upon, as the Republicans are sure of one hundred and eighteen votes, and the two States named give thirty-four, which would bring the Electoral column up to one hundred and fifty-two, the magical number. Other men might succeed in these States, but Judge Read would do so without an if or an and. He would, too, run as well as any other man who can be named in Indiana and Illinois, now that Gov. Bissell is gone."

A MEMBER OF THE KANSAS LEGISLATURE SWINDLED OUT OF $1,100.—A gentleman recently from Indiana, but at present a member of the Kansas Legislature, took passage with his family a few days since, in the steamboat South-wester for some point on the Missouri River. When the boat was about two miles distant from the city, an individual quite gentlemanly in his appearance went upon deck and requested all the male passengers to enter the cabin, where he said they could witness something really astonishing. In a few moments quite a number of the pas-In a few moments quite a number of the pas-sengers collected in the cabin and stood around a table at which one of the gambling around a table at which one of the gambling gentry was playing a game of cards of a very peculiar kind. But three cards were used, and the trick, he said, was quite simple, illustrating his remarks by performing with his "trio. Betting followed and the legislator was cheated out of $1,100, which so depressed his spirits, the lost money not being his, that it was necessary to the him in his berth to prevent him from committing suicide. The swindlers escaped with their ill-gotten gains.

REMARKABLE RESCUE FROM A WATERY GRAVE.—The brig J. D. Lincoln, from Matanzas, at Philadelphia, reports that, on the tanzas, at Philadelphia, reports that, on the night of the 16th ult., a man fell overboard from the jibboom, while in the act of taking in sail. Several ropes were hove toward him, which he missed, and as the boat, which was full of gear, would require too much time in lowering, the topsail was immediately hove aback, to give the vessel sternway, but fell short of reaching him. A prisoner from the jail in Trinidad was on board, and offered to jump overbaard to render assistance, which offer was accepted. With a hundred fathoms of deep sea-line attached to his person, he succeeded in reaching the drowning man, and both were hauled on board, after being in the water upward of half an hour.

THE BENICIA BOY'S APPEARANCE AFTER The Benicia Boy's Appearance After Training.—A description of the present personal appearance of Mr. John C. Heenan, by a writer in Porter's Spirit of the Times, says that he has lost twenty pounds since he began training. "He is strangely altered in appearance. All the Russian nobleman is gone, pearance. All the Russian nobleman is gone, and in its place appears a tone of what I can only describe as grey-hound-bull-dog-ism. His cranium's summit is closely cropped, and would be bristly, but that, when a man's whole system is in condition, his hair is invariably soft and sleek as his skin; soft and sleek as für of otter or sable. Mrs. Adah Isaacs Menken H. wouldn't know him; if by chance she encountered him during a moing walk upon the plains of Salisbury."

APPRARANCE OF LOCUSTS THIS YEAR.—Mr. Gideon B. Smith, of Baltimore, writes to the National Intelligencer that the locusts will appear extensively this year in New York and Connecticut; New Jersey, occupying the whole State; Pennsylvania, in that portion bounded by Peter's Mountain on the south, bounded by Peter's Mountain on the south, Mahantango Mountain on the north, the Delaware River on the east, and the Susquehanna on the west; Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, Michigan and Indiana. They will commence emerging in North Carolina about the 10th of May, and a few days later, for every hundred miles as we progress North, until the 1st of June, in Washington County, N.Y.

VILLAINOUS INCENDIARISM.—The office of A. C. Gillmore & Bro., cotton brokers, New Orleans, was entered the other morning by some rascal who probably expected to find money, and who, after ransacking the drawers and finding them empty, set fire to the packages of samples. A great deal of cotton in samples, probably five thousand, was destroyed, and the office somewhat damaged before the fire could be put out.

SUPPOSED MURDER OF A WOMAN,-On Sat arday last a man walking along Green Book, Plainfield, N. J., just above Water-street, frew from the water a handsome shawl nearly two yards square, with over a dozen cuts, as with a knife, through both folds. A lady's rubber shoe has also been found near by. About a month ago a dreadful screaming was heard in that vicinity past uidnight.

TERRIBLE AFFAIR IN MISSISSIPPI-A NEGRO MURDREER BURST AT THE STARE.—A negro desperado, in Washington County, Miss., hav-ing murdered two negroes on his master's plantation and made attempts on the lives of others, was captured after a desperate resist-ance, chained to a post and burnt to death.

Between four and five o'clock in the morn Between four and five e clock in the morning, according to the Pittsburg Diapatch, a party of six mitters, men and boys, went to the pit mouth to go down, as was their custom, on the platform used to bring up cost from the pit. One party had preceded them with perfect safety, and were at work. They stepped on the platform, which commenced descending, when the rope parted suddenly, and they dropped with frightful velocity a distance of one hundred and forty feet, striking with great force the solid earth below.

The names of the killed are Thomas Martin and his two sons, Robert and John, respectively aged fifteen and seventeen years; James Collins, thirty years of age; M. Gilderoy, fifty years of age, and his son.

When found, all were dead, except Mr. G.'s son, who spoke and requested them to handle him carefully. On examination no bones were found broken in any of the deceased, except James Collins, whose back was broken. They fell standing on the platform, which was about five feet square; and it is supposed that immediate death was produced by concussion of the brain, occasioned by the rapid descent and sudden rebound from the earth.

COWARDLY ASSAULT UPON JOURNALISTS.
Hon. Solon Borland and Mr. L. D. Stickney, of the Memphis (Tenn.) Enguirer, while standing in front of their office, on Shelby-street, the other night, were assaulted by a party of three men, one of whom struck Mr. B. a severe blow in the face with, it is supposed, a brass knuckle, felling him to the ground, and knocking out one of his teeth, as well as inflicting several ugly gashes on his face and head. Mr. Stickney also seceived a blow from one of the scoundrels, who immediately after fled through a neighboring alley, and escaped detection. Neither of the gentlemen had a knowledge of the persons by whom they were thus cowardly assaulted, or of their purpose of so doing.

DEATH OF ONE OF LAFITEE'S FOLLOWERS.—
The Pensacola (Florida) Tribune states that Juan Reira, of Minorca, one of the men formerfy engaged with Lafitte, the pirate, recently deceased in that State, in the eightieth year of his age. On his passage to America, the vessel in which he sailed was captured by Lafitte, and he, with other passengers, was compelled to serve under the "Pirate of the Gulf." One day, however, while at Barataria Bay, he obtained permission to go to New Orleans, under a plea of illness, and never returned.

SUIGIDE OF A WELL-TO-DO FARMER PROM FEAR OF POVERTY.—On Thursday last a farmer, B. F. Tyler, residing near Christiana Village, Del., fastened one end of a pair of plow-lines to a beam in his stable, and the other end to his neck, and jumping from the beam broke his neck, and was found soon after quite dead. Deceased was a man about twenty-six years of age, in good circumstances, and had recently-purchased a farm for $9,000, besides which he had considerable money coming to him from different sources. Yet he was a victim of despair, and hung himself from fear of poverty.

REV. MR. WORTH .- Rev. Mr. Worth, the misfrom his cell: "I will make no speculation on the results of my law prosecutions; there are two of them in two different counties. The first will be here, in about two weeks, the other in about four weeks following. Singular Accident.—A singular and dis-tressing accident happened, on Saturday last, in Troy, New York, to a lad fourteen years of in Troy, New York, to a lad fourteen years of age. He was playing with two calves, one of whom he held by a chain, having at its end a sharp hook. The calf became unruly, and in the ensuing struggle the hook was caught in the abdomen of the boy, and he was dragged around the barn-yard in that manner. His injuries were terrible, though his recovery is

A CLERICAL COTTON BROKER,-Some year ago there was a man in New Orleans who, on week days, was a cotton broker—on Sundays he was a preacher. There had been a week of unusual excitement in the cotton market, and on the following Sunday our friend commenced the services with a hymn, which he appropriate the services with a hymn, which had been a way and the services with a hymn, which had been a service with a hymn, which he announced as follows: "We wil sing to the praise of the Lord the four hun-dred and twenty-seventh hymn—long staple."

A Worthy Applestics.—"Well, Angustus, you have been an apprentice now these three months, and have seen the several departments in our line of business. I wish now to give you a choice of occupation."

Apprentice—"Thank'ee, sir."

Gus—(with a sharpness beyond his age)—"Shutting up, sir."

Singular Drays of a Negro.—A negro in the woods near South Adams, Mass., was chopping, and was caught between the body and branch of a falling tree, and pinioned against a standing one. He was found dead and upright against the standing tree, the partly fallen tree holding him by the neck, which was crushed.

A DISTINGUISHED CHARACTER WOUNDED .-Among those wounded in the naval engage-ment in the Gulf, was Gen. Domingo de Goi-couria, a Cuban exile, who has spent hun-dreds of thousands of dollars to revolutionize Cuba. He was on his vessel, the Indianola when he was wounded.

PRIZES OFFERED FOR "REVIVAL" ESSAYS. It is stated that two Manchester gentlemen have offered a prize of £100 and one of £50, for the best essay on revivals. The names joined as judges are said to be the Rev. Prebendary of St. Paul's Cathedral, and the Rev. Charles Stovel. How MOLIBRE AVOIDED SICENESS,-Louis XIV, who was a slave to his physicians, asked his friend Moliere what he did for his doctor. "Oh, Sire," said he, "when I am ill I send for him. He comes; we have a chat and enjoy ourselves. He prescribes. I don't take it—and I am cured." Theological Endowners.—J. H. Brown, who supports fifty-two young Baptist theological students at Howard College, in Alabams, at an annual cost of $13,000, has recently endowed a theological chair in that college by a contribution of $25,000.

About the middle of March, Urian R. Fould, a Louisians planter, went to New Orleans to sell his crops and see the eights. He visited the museum and saw Miss Sarah Moorehouse, the female who fills a large space in the public estimation, being, in fact, seven feet six inches in her—hose. The Amason the amorous planter "force not need to week, but too well."

By a ruse, he succeeded in getting the lady to rack herself into a coach to visit a sick friend, as the planter stid. The lady compelled the driver to return with her, and she took the unfortunate agriculturist to an hospital—a warning to all young men not to attempt abducting a giantes.

THE ONLY JONE QUEEN VICTORIA EVER PERPETRATED.—That was a singularly witty answer of our Queen, says the British Work-man, that she gave to an African prince, who men, that she gave to an African prince, who sent an embassage, with coatly presents, and asked her in return to tell him the secret of England's greatness and England's glory; and our beloved Queen sent him, not the number of her fleet; not the number of her armies; not the account of her boundless merchandise; not the details of her inexhaustible wealth. She did not, like Hezekiah, in an evil hour, show the embassador her diamonds, and her rich ornaments, but, handing him a beautifully bound copy of the Bible, she said: "Tell the Prince that this is the secret of England's greatness." THE SUGAR TRADE,—At the meeting of an association recently held in Liverpool, it was stated from official returns, that prior to 1834 the average export of sugar from Jamaica to the average export of sugar from Jamaica to England was sixty-seven thousand tuns, and now it hardly reached thirty thousand tuns. In Cuba the exports for the same period, from Havana and Matanzas only, had increased from eighty-two thousand to two hundred and forty thousand tuns, and from Brasil the exports for the same period had augmented from sixty-three thousand to one hundred from sixty-three thousand to one hundred and twenty thousand tims. Hayti, which formerly exported a large quantity, now ex-ports none, and imports a small quantity for its own consumption. The supply from Mauritius and the East Indies is slowly in-Currous Legal Decision.—The Supreme Court of New Hampshire recently decided a curious case in Coos County. The case related to a public notice of a sale on an execution. The Court held that a failure to comply with any of the substantial requirements of the statute, providing for the appraisal or sale of a debtor's lands on execution, will avoid the levy. While the statute requires notice of a sale to be posted up in two of the most public places in town in which the property is situated, and the land is situated in a town which has but one public place, or in a place not incorporated nor inhabited, the statute is inoperative, and no valid levy can be made.

LATEST FROM DR. LIVINGSTONE'S AFRICAN Expedition.—Intelligence has been received of Doctor Livingstone and the Zamberi expe-dition to a late date in December. They were then at Kongone harbor on the Zambezi delta, then at Kongone harbor on the Zambezl delta, and were engaged in repairing their steam launch. They had returned from a second expedition on the Shire, in which they had penetrated far up beyond Lake Shirwa to Lake Nyassa. The former they ascertained to be a sheet of water ninety miles in length, and the latter is of still larger magnitude. Dr. Livingstone, with his brother, Dr. Kirk and Mr. Rac, were expecting to return to Sete with their boat, the Ma Robert, and thence overland by foot on a visit to the Makolodo country. This journey was expected to extend over a period of at least eight months.

Craig, a wealthy farmer, forty-eight years of age, who resided four miles from Clyde, O., age, who resided four miles from Clyde, O., committed suicide a day or two since by hanging himself in his barn. Craig had long been subject to fits of great mental depression, and on several occasions had threatened to take his own life. On Tuesday last he was at Clyde, and attempted to throw himself under the carg, but the attempt was frustrated. He then went to a physician of Clyde and offered him one hundred dollars to give him something to produce instant death. He was missed about noon, and a search being instituted, he was found in the barn dead.

A Man Driven to Suicide by ills Wife.—
In the hat of a middle-aged man, name unknown, whose body was discovered floating in the Schuylkill, near Lombard-street dock, Philadelphia, was found the following hastly
scrawled note:
"My dear Liva: You have been the means

"My dear Liea: You have been the hierans of this by driving me out of a home. May God bless you. I forgive you, and hope you will also. I lie in the bottom of Schuylkill River. May God bless you and all my

What Constitutes Munder in Trans.—A man named Michael Flock, who killed another named Edward Foley, at Houston, Texas, has been balled at $15,000. The Telegraph, speaking of the question of ball, says it is inclined to regard the killing as technical murder, and adds that murder is "a crime rarely, if ever, committed in Texas." Killing can rarely, if ever, be considered murder in that State, then, one would think.

TROUBLE IN TURKEY—THE SULTAN WISHES TO WED A SLAVE,—The Nord states that Abdul-Medjid has just narrowly escaped causing a ministerial revolution. The Sultan wished to marry a slave, which he had full right to do, and the ministers made no objection. When, however, he asked them for ten million piasters for the marriage fetes they pleaded the penury of the treasury and refused. Numismatics in New York.—The sale of the extensive numismatic cabinet of Mr. Bramhall, of New York, by auction, shows that the "coin fever" is still unabated. A dime of 1822 sold for $2 90; a quarter dollar, 1796—the first year's coinage of this denomination—$1 6256; a proof flying-eagle dollar, 1838, $9, cents of 1793, the various types, $1 87 to $4 50 each, and 1803, 1817, 1818 and 1819, $2 to $3 each; I Chalmers's Annapolis shilling of 1798, $7 50; Louisiana coppers, 1722 and 1767, $4 50 and $9 25.

CLERICAL SATIRE.—Two persons were once disputing so loudly on the subject of religion that they awoke a big dog which had been sleeping on the hearth before them, and he forthwith barked most furiously. An old divine present, who had been quietly sipping his tea while the disputants were talking, gave the dog a kick, and exclaimed: "Hold your longue, you silly brute! you know no more about it than they do."

NORTHERN CLERGYMEN IN SOUTHERN PUL-PITS.—Four Northern clergymen preached in Charleston, S. C., on a recent Sunday: Rev. Dr. Nehemish Adams, of Boston, the author of the South Side View of Slavery; Rev. Dr. Blagden, of the Old South Church, Boston; Rev. Dr. Todd, author of the Student's Man-nel; and the Rev. Gardiner Spring, of New York.

ORITUARY GRIEF.—Something ought to be done to prevent people from giving vent to their grief in verse when they are bereaved. What fate too hard for the man who appended the following lines to the announcement of a young lady's death in a neighboring city.

"A few weeks ago she was to be a bride," But now the grave her lovely form doth hide."

Petitions Against "Slave-Hunting."—
The Boston Liberator gives a list of the petitions presented to the Legislature at the present session, "against slave-hunting in Massachusetts;" or, in plain English, to nulify the Constitution of the United States—that "agreement with hell," as the Abolitionists call it. The number of petitions is nearly fifteen thousand.

A SENATOR BURNT IN EFFIGY.—Recently at Mount Pleasant, Md., Dr. A. A. Lynch State Senator from Baltimore County, wh offered a resolution at the late session of the Legislature, appropriating $500 for the trans-portation of the Hon. Henry Winter Davis to Liberia, was burnt in effigy, amid demon-strations of scorn and contempt.

END OF THE BRREA EXCITEMENT,—The Louisville papers are informed that the whole of the band of sympathizing Republicans who attacked the Committee at Beres on the 26th ult., have fled the county, taking their families with them. This information, though not direct, is believed to be correct. BEATING ONE'S MOTHER,-"I like you, said a girl to her saior. But I can not leave home; I am a widow's only darling; no husband can equal my mother in kindness." She is kind." replied the wooer, "but be my wife—we will all live together, and see if I don't beat your mother—in kindness!"

THE SHOKING EXCITEMENT IN ROME,--I Rome, just now, the native anti-smoking movement is maintained with the spirit of the Boston Tea-party days. Foreigners amoke incessantly, but Romans persistently abstain, in order to reach the Pope's finances, and they are deeply affected by this abstingues.
